Evelyn Thaw's Daily Greeting
Be the weather fair or foul, his prospect of freedom bright or lowering, the faithful wife of Stanford White's slayer each day visits his cell and banishes the dark gloom of the Tombs with the vision of her beauty. Thaw has declared this daily visit of his wife the one bright lodestar of his life.

HEROISM OF POLICE AND FIREMEN SAVES SCORES
FOUR BURNED DURING STORM
PELHAM, N. Y., Feb. 6.—During the storm yesterday fire swept through the dairy stables and apartments above of Richard L. Vaughn and burned to death four persons.
Mrs. Vaughn and her two-year-old son were caught by the flames as the mother, with the child in her arms, was crossing her way through the smoke.
A colored woman living with the Vaughns was burned to her bed. Thomas McKay, a stablesman, escaped from the house only to lose his life in an effort to save the owner. The heavy loss was estimated at $150,000.
FINE PAINTINGS BURN.
NORTHWESTERN, N. Y., Feb. 6.—Yesterday the country house of Henry Brown, was burned to ashes. The paintings were destroyed. The loss is estimated at $150,000.
Aroused by Firemen.
"We were all asleep, my wife, our three children and myself, when I was awakened by shouts of 'Fire!' The next minute our door was gunned in and several firemen grabbed and hauled us down over their heads, one by one."

DELMAS IN CHARGE OF DEFENSE

REASON THAW'S LAWYER "MYSTERY" REVEALED

Was Harry Thaw's Personal Friend and an Able Whist Player, but Associate Counsel Didn't Indorse His Management of Case—Not to Have Leading Part.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Fearing that his defence would prove a fiasco if conducted by Lawyer John B. Gleason in the manner it has been for two days, Harry K. Thaw consented to-day to allow Delmas to take charge of the fight to save him for killing Stanford White.
The change was announced by Lawyer Daniel O'Reilly before the trial was resumed in the Criminal Courts Building. It followed a conference of the Thaw lawyers at which the decision was reached that if Gleason did not give way the others would withdraw from the case.

Late Under Which Thaw Makes His Insanity Plea
NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The section of the penal code under which Harry K. Thaw is permitted to enter a plea of temporary insanity is defined under sub-section No. 211, and follows:
A person is not accused from criminal liability on proof that at the time of the committing of the alleged crime he was laboring under such a defect of reason as either not to know the nature and quality of act he was doing or that it was wrong.

2 LINERS IN PERIL; FEAR LOSS OF LIVES

BIG STEAMERS, LOADED WITH PASSENGERS, BUFFETED BY STORM NEAR HALIFAX.
HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 6.—Two mighty steel ocean liners are in peril a few miles west of this city in Ketch Harbour. One of the liners is disabled and the other is in danger.
They are anchored in a dangerous position.

KAISER'S MAJORITY 35 IN REICHSTAG
BERLIN, Feb. 6.—The German Government is free to continue undisturbed its policy of imperialism which has been the keynote of Kaiser William's reign. The people have expressed their approval of the Emperor's present policy in the Reichstag. The Emperor will have a majority of 35, thus securing the majority of 40 of the opposition in the Reichstag.
